Orchestra of the Southern Finger Lakes Presents Facebook Live Mini-Concert with Principal Horn, Tyler Ogilvie

The Orchestra of the Southern Finger Lakes (OSFL) will present a Facebook Live “concert” with OSFL principal horn, Tyler Ogilvie, on Saturday, October 17, 2020 at 4:00 PM. The concert is free. Donations are appreciated to help the Orchestra and musicians through this prolonged time off-stage.

Ogilvie is a graduate of Ithaca College, with degrees in music education (B.M.) and horn performance (M.M.). He previously taught in the public schools of New Jersey and Connecticut, and currently serves on the music faculties of Susquehanna University and Dickinson College. Ogilvie freelances regularly with regional orchestras and ensembles throughout New York and Pennsylvania. He also spends some free time composing and will be featuring two of his own pieces, The Wailer and Zero Point, on Saturday’s program. Ogilvie will also perform Dream of the Rhinoceros by Trygve Madsen, Blue Soliloquy by Steven Winteregg, and selections from Bach’s Cello Suite V.

Facebook LIVE presentations by OSFL musicians will take place approximately every two weeks during this time of continued social distancing. To find out more, follow the OSFL on Facebook at facebook.com/theOSFL, Twitter at @OSFL, Instagram at @orchsfl, or check out the website at www.OSFL.org.

ABOUT THE ORCHESTRA OF THE SOUTHERN FINGER LAKES (OSFL)

Due to the pandemic shutdown of large gatherings, the OSFL remains off-stage until further notice. In a normal year, the OSFL offers four regular season full orchestra concerts, including a side by side Youth Orchestra and professional musician collaboration, a Musicians’ Choice Chamber Music Series, concerts by the Chorus of the Southern Finger Lakes, several concerts by the Youth Orchestra and Junior String Ensemble, as well as smaller ensemble concerts for children. Under the guidance of distinguished Music Director and Conductor, Toshiyuki Shimada, the OSFL is a strong supporter of highlighting the musical achievements of young musicians with its own Youth Orchestra and Junior String Ensemble programs, as well as the Hertzog Concerto Competition for young artists in grades 9 - 12. The OSFL collaborates with regional cultural partners, artists, and like-minded organizations to advance our mutual artistic growth in the greater Elmira-Corning area.

Support for the Orchestra of the Southern Finger Lakes comes from Corning Incorporated Foundation, Hilliard Corporation, Community Foundation of Elmira-Corning and the Finger Lakes, Inc., and the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew M. Cuomo and the New York State Legislature.
